A Family Perspective

Today's gospel teaches us UNCERTAINTY is normal. There are somethings in life, which 'no one knows...only the Father.' Marriage and parenting are full of uncertainty for like the fig tree in the gospel; the people we love grow and change.

Second Collection November 17 & 18: Human Development

In the United States, one in seven people lives in poverty. With this collection you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those who are struggling across the county. In addition, 25 percent of funds collected remains in our diocese to fund local anti-poverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection

Second Collection November 24 & 25: Fuel

Thank you to everyone who helped in anyway to make our Autumn Dinner a huge success. Whether you made pies, set up or cleaned up, peeled squash and potatoes, made the stuffing, served, sold tickets, or helped in anyway, please know your help was much appreciated!
A huge thank you goes to Dan Hall, Vinnie Ecke and Todd Lund for cooking all 10 turkeys and working all week and during the dinner! You're the best!

The Jesse Tree

The Jesse tree is named from Isaiah 11:1: "A shoot shall come out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots." Jesse was the father of King David. We adorn a Jesse tree with illustrated ornaments that represent the people, prophesies, and events leading up to the birth of Jesus.

St. Mary's Jesse Tree is also a Giving Tree. The names on the back of the Jesse Tree tags represent children in our community and their Christmas gift wishes. We have the ability to make their Christmas a joyful day full of wonderful memories. You can help by taking a tag off the Jesse Tree and buying a present for the child listed on the back. Please place the unwrapped gift, with the tag attached under the tree by December 9th. Thank you

About the 2 Mass Intentions for the weekend of November 24 & 25

When he was a child, a Broome County priest sexually abused him. About 30 years later, the Catholic Diocese of Syracuse offered to cover mental health counseling and/or psychiatric care in addition to, money in compensation for the trauma he endured. His settlement, offered from the diocese on July 23, is part of the Syracuse Diocese's Independent Reconciliation and Compensation Program (IRCP).

How the victim chose to spend it is a testament to the process of healing. About four days after receiving his check, the victim contacted the diocese. Now an adult no longer living in the area, the man has used the money to aid two Broome County food pantries and has purchased Masses at every parish in the diocese to be said for the victims of sex abuse - as well as for their abusers. The man stated that he hopes the donation will demonstrate forgiveness and bring healing.

"I didn't feel that I needed to heal. But a lot of other people do." the victim said. "And that's why I'm doing what I'm doing. There is a tremendous amount of hurt and anger and sorrow and suffering out there, which is all entirely valid and lamentable, and I hope bit by bit can be mitigated, and maybe even brought to a sense of peace and comfort somewhere."

Vespers and Remembrance of our Beloved Departed

Traditionally during the month of November, we as a church community remember all of our faithful departed.

On Sunday, November 25, the Solemnity of Christ the King, we will come together to pray Vespers – the evening prayer of the Church.

During this communal prayer we will remember by name all those from St. Mary of the Assumption and Our Lady of the Rosary who have died since last November.

Vespers will begin at the traditional time of 5:00 pm. I hope that you will come to pray and remember all our faithful departed.

I am sure they have not forgotten us!
